

CIVF MEMBERSHIP (Ts & Cs) (Per CIVF Constitution)

Declaration

By virtue of its legal powers, the Federation declares that the FIVB Constitution, Regulations, Rules and Decisions are considered as part of its own Constitution and they are to be compulsory respected by the Federation, by all its members and by third parties involved in volleyball matters except if otherwise authorized by the FIVB.

Objectives

The CIVF shall encourage the expansion of the playing of volleyball in all its forms, in the Cayman Islands and promote the creation of unified teams and clubs. It shall promote, coordinate, publicize, regulate, organize, supervise, control, direct and govern the sport of volleyball throughout the Cayman Islands. In particular, and without restricting the extent of the general principles stated above, the CIVF shall:

- a) establish and modify the official Regulations of the Federation for Sports, Recreation, and Administrative and Financial purposes, in accordance with its constitution;
- b) arrange and provide for or join in arranging and providing for the holding of courses for the instruction and teaching of volleyball to teachers, coaches, instructors and other persons, and for the holding of meetings, lectures and classes calculated directly or indirectly to further the objects of the Federation;
- c) give prizes, medals and other awards. Obtain, collect or receive monies and or funds by way of contributions, donations, subscriptions, legacies, grants or any other lawful methods, and to accept and receive gifts of property of any description, for or towards the objects of the Federation;
- d) exchange and disseminate information among its members for the improvement of volleyball in the Cayman Islands and to procure to be written or made and print, publish, issue, exhibit and circulate gratuitously or otherwise any reports, periodicals, books, pamphlets, leaflets, films, photographs, instructional matter or any other documents or things as may be thought expedient in connection with the objects of the Federation or any of the above;
- e) administer and govern volleyball in all its forms, professional and amateur, including the control of all volleyball competitions in the Cayman Islands;
- t) control and govern the appointment of its referees;
- g) regulate the transfer of its players and referees;
- h) promote the welfare of the affiliated association(s) and club(s) as well as the mutual respect and cooperation among themselves and assist in the development of their technical expertise;
- i) take specific measures to maintain the authority, the autonomy and the exclusive competence of the affiliated association(s) or club(s) to administer and govern volleyball activities in their respective association(s) or club(s);
- j) liaise with Government before bidding for the hosting of any international event or embarking on any tour with regard to protocol and diplomatic intervention; and
- k) take all appropriate measures directly and indirectly related to the practice of volleyball and in the best interest of the sport.

Fundamental Principles

The CIVF is the sole entity competent to administer and govern volleyball in the Cayman Islands for male and female players. The CIVF has received recognition from the Cayman Islands Government, Cayman Islands Olympic Committee, NORCECA, and the Federation de Internationale de Volleyball.

The CIVF shall make no discrimination between people, countries or nations and shall avoid political, religious, philosophical or racial involvement, declarations or manifestations.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

1. Persons who wish to become a member must be proposed for membership by an existing member and seconded by another member and either the proposer or the seconder must be a member of the Board. Each proposal for membership shall be given to the Secretary, who shall submit it to the next meeting of the Board. The Board shall by resolution elect or refuse to elect any person so proposed.
2. Persons so elected shall become members on the payment of the subscription for the current year. A member shall cease to become a member if:
 - a) having paid his subscription for the current year, he notifies the Secretary of his desire to resign;
 - b) he fails to pay any subscription within one calendar month after the due date of payment;
 - c) the member having committed some act contrary to the rules of the Federation or being found guilty of unacceptable behavior by the Disciplinary Committee, inconsistent with the membership of the Federation, the Board so resolves by a majority of two-thirds of its members.
3. The annual subscription to the Federation shall be set by the Board and shall be payable within the first month, of the due date, of the fiscal year. The AGM shall have the power to vary the Subscription by Ordinary resolution. A person who is elected to be a member before the 30th day of November in any calendar year shall pay the full subscription for that year.

APPLICATION TO PROPOSAL FOR MEMBERSHIP:

CIVF welcome persons who wish to become a member of this professional, non-profit organization. Annual Dues are CI $25.00. Please complete and detach the application form and submit with your cheque or cash payment to the Secretary. Keep the above for your records. By signing attached form, you are agreeing to uphold the CIVF Constitution rules and/or Regulations.
